

Bronze and brass theodolite, mahogany support and box, compass signed Isidoro Gluck Mexico DF and numbered 201; two paper labels pasted on the inside of the door, one marked ‘Transito Gluck #201. 7-2241’ and one ‘Garavaglia y Sanchez Mex DF’.

AN EARLY TWENTIETH CENTURY THEODOLITE

[Theodolite].

Author
GLUCK, Isidoro

Publication date
c1900].

Publisher
[Isidoro Gluck, 3a Calle de San Francisco N.6,

Publication place
Mexico City,

Physical description
Bronze and brass theodolite, mahogany support and box, compass signed Isidoro Gluck Mexico DF and numbered 201; two paper labels pasted on the inside of the door, one marked ‘Transito Gluck #201. 7-2241’ and one ‘Garavaglia y Sanchez Mex DF’.

Dimensions

Notes
Isidoro Gluck was an American merchant based in Mexico City. He originally sold optical equipment but added engineering supplies and drawing materials when surveyors became important customers. Among his inventory he sold theodolites, scales, dials, compasses, barometers, thermometers. He was the only manufacturer of glasses in Mexico at the time.

Bibliography
SCHELL, William Jr, 2001, p22.

Provenance

Price:

Inventory reference: 12772

© Daniel Crouch Rare Books Ltd | 2025