

Small 4to (115 by 180mm), title, 43 engraved maps (map of Yorkshire folding within pocket), original outline hand-colour, straight grained red morocco portmanteau binding, lettered in gilt to spine.

CARY'S SMALLEST ATLAS IN A RED MOROCCO PORTMANTEAU BINDING

Traveller's Companion, or, a Delineation of the Turnpike Roads of England and Wales.

Author

CARY, John

Publication date

1806

Publisher

Printed for John Cary Engraver, and Map-seller Strand,

Publication place

London,

Physical description

Small 4to (115 by 180mm), title, 43 engraved maps (map of Yorkshire folding within pocket), original outline hand-colour, straight grained red morocco portmanteau binding, lettered in gilt to spine.

Dimensions

Notes

This is the smallest of the three county atlases produced by John Cary, and was described by him as being an abridgement of the 'New and Correct Atlas' of 1787. According to Chubb this is the four edition of the atlas.

Bibliography

Chubb CCCLV

ProvenancePrice:

Inventory reference: 2633

© Daniel Crouch Rare Books Ltd | 2025