

Eengraved birds-eye view, on two sheets joined, seventeen views of the Oxford colleges to borders.

ELIZABETHAN OXFORD

Oxonia Antiqua Instaurata, sive Urbis & Academiae Oxoniensis Topographica delineatio olim a Rudolph Agas impressa A.D. 1578 nunc denuo ari incisa A.D. MDCCXXVIII.

Author
WHITTLESEY, Robert [After] Ralph AGAS

Publication date
1728.

Publisher
E. Butler,

Publication place
London,

Physical description
Eengraved birds-eye view, on two sheets joined, seventeen views of the Oxford colleges to borders.

Dimensions
650 by 960mm (25.5 by 37.75 inches).

Notes
This detailed and elaborate plan of the city printed by E. Butler and dedicated to Henry Duke of Beaufort is the first and most important derivative plan of the city done by Ralph Agas in 1578. The 17 views of the Oxford colleges surrounding the plan were taken from drawings by John Bereblock (1566) prepared for the visit of Queen Elizabeth to Oxford.

Bibliography

Provenance

Price:

Inventory reference: 1366

© Daniel Crouch Rare Books Ltd | 2025