

Large engraved map, fine original full-wash colour, dissected and mounted on linen, in two sections, housed in original green morocco slipcase, spine in compartments and lettered in gilt.

FORREST’S LARGE-SCALE SURVEY OF WEST LOTHIAN

The County of Lanark from Actual Survey by Will[ia]m Forrest. To the Right Honourable John, Earl of Hopetown, Viscount Atherley, Lord Hope,... and Lord Lieutenant of the County of Linlithgow etc. This map is Most Respectfully Inscribed by His Lordship’s Most Obedient and Humble Servant, William Forrest.

Author
FORREST, Will[ia]m

Publication date
1818.

Publisher
W. Forrest,

Publication place
Edinburgh,

Physical description
Large engraved map, fine original full-wash colour, dissected and mounted on linen, in two sections, housed in original green morocco slipcase, spine in compartments and lettered in gilt.

Dimensions
1780 by 1280mm (70 by 50.5 inches).

Notes

An outstanding example of a scarce Scottish large-scale survey.

A superb map of the area now know as West Lothian and embracing the old parishes of Torphichen, Bathgate, Whitburn, Bo’ness, Kirkliston, Linlithgow, Uphall, Abercon, Dalmeny and Cramond, etc. Much detail is shown including kirks, burns and lochs, Roman and Danish camps, and the Antonine Wall.

Bibliography
NLS EMS.s.33.

Provenance

Price:

Inventory reference: 1380

© Daniel Crouch Rare Books Ltd | 2025