

Engraved map, original hand-colour in outline, dissected and mounted on linen, edged in green silk, inset of Newport, key and reference to parishes.

ISLE OF WIGHT – JOHN ALBIN'S FINE AND DETAILED MAP OF THE ISLE OF WIGHT

To the Right Honourable Lord Bolton Lord Lieutenant of the County of Hants & Governor of the Isle of Wight This Map of the Island is inscribed as a public Testimony of Respect by his very obliged humble Servant John Albin.

Author
ALBIN, John

Publication date
Aug. 12th, 1802.

Publisher
John Albin,

Publication place
Newport, Isle of Wight,

Physical description
Engraved map, original hand-colour in outline, dissected and mounted on linen, edged in green silk, inset of Newport, key and reference to parishes.

Dimensions
600 by 400mm (23.5 by 15.75 inches).

Notes

The map gives information on parishes, churches, gentlemen’s seats, farms and cottages, buoys on the water, wind mills, water mills, signal posts, cliffs, rivers, roads, sandbanks, rocks. John Albin was a publisher and cartographer living and working in Newport. He is best known for ‘A new, correct, and much improved-history of the Isle of Wight’ (1795).

Scale: 1 inch to 1 statute mile.

Bibliography

Provenance

Price:

Inventory reference: 1353

© Daniel Crouch Rare Books Ltd | 2025