

Colour printed lithographed map, eyelets at each top corner

ITALIAN COLONY IN AFRICA DURING WWII

Egitto-Sudan e Africa Orientale

Author
DELL'ISTITUTO PER GLI STUDI DE POLITICA INTERNAZIONALI

Publication date
10 Giugno 1940

Publisher
Dell'Istituto per gli Studi de Politica Internazionali,

Publication place
Milan,

Physical description
Colour printed lithographed map, eyelets at each top corner

Dimensions
1023 by 680mm. (40.25 by 26.75 inches).

Notes
Map of northeast Africa during WWII, showing the Italian colony of Africa Orientale Italiana, or, Italian East Africa, which combined Ethiopia, Eritrea and Italian Somaliland, with its administrative capital at Adis Abada. It was established by Decree in June 1, 1936, following the annexation on May 9 by Italy of Abyssinia and the proclamation of the King of Italy as Emperor of Ethiopia.

Founded in 1934, the Dell’Istituto per gli Studi de Politica Internazionali, ISPI, as a think tank dedicated to the analysis of international socio-political and economic dynamics.

Rare: only one institutional example recorded by OCLC

Bibliography

Provenance

Price: £100

Inventory reference: 18325

© Daniel Crouch Rare Books Ltd | 2025