

Engraved trade card.

N IS FOR NEWSAGENT

Wm. Clement, Bookseller & Stationer,... News Papers served in Town, and regularly sent to all parts of England Postage free. Copper Plate Engraving and Printing in the neatest manner. Books Elegantly Bound and carefully Packed for Exportation

Author
CLEMENT, William

Publication date
[1800-1801]

Publisher
No 201 Strand, opposite St. Clements Church,

Publication place
London,

Physical description
Engraved trade card.

Dimensions
120 by 80mm. (4.75 by 3.25 inches).

Notes
Clement's first address in the Strand, recorded in 1800, was at number 220. The following year he moved to number 201, from where he published 'Taxes 1801: Including the New Stamps – Clement's Epitomised Taxes, Alphabetically Arranged'. The business moved again in 1811, to 11 Newcastle

Street, Strand, as W.J. Clement, quite possibly a son, who continued in business until 1825

Bibliography

Provenance

Price:

Inventory reference: 17806

© Daniel Crouch Rare Books Ltd | 2025