

Lithohgraph, printed recto and verso, trimmed.

POCOCK’S PREMISES

Lithography, Engraving and Printing, Drawings of Every Description, Elevations, Plans, Maps, Bill-heads and Circulars, Drawn, Copied, Written & taken off by Alfred Pocock, Broad Street, Wine Street, Bristol

Author
POCOCK, Alfred

Publication date
c1860].

Publisher

Publication place
[Bristol,

Physical description
Lithohgraph, printed recto and verso, trimmed.

Dimensions
300 by 208mm. (11.75 by 8.25 inches).

Notes
Advertisement for Alfred Pocock’s Bristol print shop, consisting of a view of his premises, with a printed text on the reverse. In this text Pocock explains his reasons for “having lately enlarged his Establishment” and describes the lithographic services provided. Pocock also supplied materials for practising lithographers and in addition offers “directions given to assist Young Practitioners”.

Alfred Pocock (1814-97) was known for his local views and views of Australia. He was also a keen cricketer, who apart from being a founder member of the club which became Gloucestershire CCC, gave W.G. Grace his first coaching.

Bibliography

A. Baynton-Williams & Laurence Worms, ‘British Map Engravers’.

Provenance

Price: £850

Inventory reference: 17714

© Daniel Crouch Rare Books Ltd | 2025