

Folding chromolithograph map, list of places of interest, advert for Socony Motor Gasoline to borders, local information and advertisements to verso, folding into printed paper covers.

THE YOUNG MAN'S GUIDE TO SHANGHAI

Map of Shanghai Showing Places of Interest Compliments of the Navy Y.M.C.A.

Author
NAVY Y.M.C.A.

Publication date
[c.1936].

Publisher
Printed by Thomas Chu & Sons,

Publication place
[Shanghai],

Physical description
Folding chromolithograph map, list of places of interest, advert for Socony Motor Gasoline to borders, local information and advertisements to verso, folding into printed paper covers.

Dimensions
335 by 500mm. (13.25 by 19.75 inches).

Notes
Pre-Second World War plan of Shanghai produced for the American Navy Y.M.C.A.: for the use of U.S. Navy personnel stationed in Shanghai. The plan lists places of interest including theatres, parks, hotels, clubs, churches, banks, post offices, consulates, and other Y.M.C.A.s. The businesses that advertise on the verso are also listed. Also to the verso is general information, including the time zones of other ports, distances to other ports, postal rates, telegraph and cable rates, amusements, church services, sightseeing trips, and a brief history of the Y.M.C.A.

Bibliography

Provenance

Price:

Inventory reference: 1297

© Daniel Crouch Rare Books Ltd | 2025