

Chromolithograph postcard.

WHEN I LOOK INTO YOUR EYES THEN VANISH ALL MY SORROW AND PAIN…

Geographische Liebes-Rathsel

Author
[ANONYMOUS]

Publication date
[c1902]

Publisher

Publication place

Physical description
Chromolithograph postcard.

Dimensions
90 by 140mm. (3.5 by 5.5 inches).

Notes
One of a series of love map postcards intended to illustrate the the early German Romantic poet Heinrich Heine's 'Buch der Lieder'.

The poem illustrated here is:

"Wenn ich in deiner Augen seh' so schwindet all' mein Leid und Weh… (When I look into your eyes then vanish all my sorrow and pain…)

The two lovers look at each other across the sea; the woman’s profile outlined on the ‘Lied’ coast; where as the man, whose profile can be seen on the ‘Brust’ coast is shown reciting the poem.

Bibliography

Provenance

Price:

Inventory reference: 16456

© Daniel Crouch Rare Books Ltd | 2025