

Engraved map on two sheets joined, trimmed to neatline, some minor loss to marigins, and some slight abrasions.

WILLIAM WEBB'S RARE EDITION OF SAXTON'S MAP OF YORKSHIRE

[Yorkshire].

Author

SAXTON, Christopher

Publication date

1645].

Publisher

William Webb,

Publication place

[London,

Physical description

Engraved map on two sheets joined, trimmed to neatline, some minor loss to marigins, and some slight abrasions.

Dimensions

530 by 720mm (20.75 by 28.25 inches).

Notes

The title cartouche has been erased and a view of "The Towne of Hull" substituted, with two ships and a sea monster added below. In place of Seckford's arms is a plan of "The City of Yorke" after John Speed. Also the divisions, but not the names', of the hundreds have been added.

Bibliography

Skelton 27 plates 25 and 26.

ProvenancePrice:

Inventory reference: 1786

© Daniel Crouch Rare Books Ltd | 2025