

Quarto (265 by 200mm), first edition, list of subscribers, 12 folding engraved plates, a few minor tears to plates at guards, book plate of Assheton Curzon, contemporary speckled calf, spine in six compartments separated by raised bands, rebacked.

“A WORK OF EXTRAORDINARY CARE AND SCIENTIFIC THOROUGHNESS [WHICH] BECAME THE STANDARD NAUTICAL DICTIONARY UNTIL THE END OF SAIL”

An Universal Dictionary of the Marine: or, a copious explanation of the technical technical terms and phases...

Author
FALCONER, William

Publication date
1769

Publisher
Printed for T. Cadell in the Strand,

Publication place
London,

Physical description
Quarto (265 by 200mm), first edition, list of subscribers, 12 folding engraved plates, a few minor tears to plates at guards, book plate of Assheton Curzon, contemporary speckled calf, spine in six compartments separated by raised bands, rebacked.

Dimensions

Notes
FIRST EDITION of “a work of extraordinary care and scientific thoroughness [which] became the standard nautical dictionary until the end of sail” (ODNB).

Bibliography

Provenance

Price:

Inventory reference: 1944

© Daniel Crouch Rare Books Ltd | 2025