

Quarto (195 by 130mm), [10], vi, 289, [15]pp., amorial bookplate on frfront pastedown, contemporary mottled calf, extremeties scuffed.

MEMOIRS OF NORTH-BRITAIN

[Darien Scheme]. Memoirs of North-Britain; Taken from Authentick Writings, as Well Manuscript as well Manuscript as Printed. In which it is Prov'd, That the Scots Nation have Always been Zealous in the Defence of the Protestant Religion and Liberty.

Author

OLDMIXON, John

Publication date

1715.

Publisher

Printed for J. Baker, at the Black Boy in Pater-Noster-Row; and J. Graves, near White's Chocolate-House, St. James's, Publication place

London,

Physical description

Quarto (195 by 130mm), [10], vi, 289, [15]pp., amorial bookplate on frfront pastedown, contemporary mottled calf, extremeties scuffed.

Dimensions

Notes

One of many books written by John Oldmixon in the early 18th century pointing out the nefarious actions of France. In this volume he assesses the actions and loyalties of the Scots. He notes with particular interest the Darien Colony scheme advanced by Scottish businessmen, also known as the "Scottish East India Company." They attempted to establish a trading outpost on the Isthmus of Darien, and although they had good relations with the natives, Spanish hostility and British pressure forced them to abandon the venture. In this copy the dedication is unsigned.

Bibliography

European Americana 715/129; Sabin 47571.

ProvenancePrice:

Inventory reference: 1599

© Daniel Crouch Rare Books Ltd | 2025