Notes
Rare pictorial bird’s-eye view of the Swedish attack on Danzig in 1628, published by the little known Dutch publisher Jacob Marcus. His only other foray into “map” publishing was an edition of Famiano Strado’s De Bello Belgico, 1647, which included an engraved frontispiece map, a ‘Leo Belgicus’ – an allegorical map of the Netherlands depicted in the form of a lion.

Bibliography
Otherwise untraced; not found in searches of KVT, COPAC and Worldcat.
